

INTER-COMMUNITY RETREAT

Lama Foundation

Friday, August 31 - Monday, September 3, 2018

Lama Foundation opens its doors this summer for an inaugural Southwest Regional Inter-community Retreat.

In partnership with fellow communities and with the help of the FIC (Fellowship for Intentional Communities), we are co-creating this exciting opportunity for networking and commingling among folks from diverse communities.

Through discussion and activities we will explore best practices, challenges and problem solving, and sharing resources. All participants and communities will benefit through learning from one another, by discovering our similarities and differences, and experiencing our strengths and weaknesses.

Our aim is to enrich each participating community and participant by providing an opportunity for collective reflection on the meaning and possibilities of community in our unique age.

Cost: In the Gift (encouraging participants to give what they can in support of this event, please see our website for more details)
